

BUMIARMADA

As part of ANGOIL BUMI JV (ABJV) LDA's sustainability initiative, a visit to the National Institute for Support of Children (INAC) was held on 4th August, 2017. Mr Daniel Pedro, Visa and Travel Coordinator and Mrs Eveline Neto- HR and Admin Coordinator represented ABJV. During their visit, they discussed the support provided by ABJV with Dr. Eduardo Bapolo, Chief of the National Department for Support of the INAC Director and Madalena Claudio, Administration and Finance Officer from INAC.

The visit also included making a donation of monetary value for the acquisition of IT equipment to improve the provision of mediation services, psychosocial support, juridical assistance in cases of violence against children. This equipment will be installed in the counselling room and call centre to support an open network for the reporting of violence against children. Key members from ABJV are planning a second visit once the centre is fully operational.
